Chapter 1 by Jesus L

"Why am I here?" I think to myself everyday. "Why am I different from the people around me? What makes me different?" is all I think about when another person gives me an unusual stare as I walk down the sidewalk.

I don't know why it bothers me so much what this world thinks of me. I hate the stares of disapproval, and the name calling, and the isolation. This is the lowest point in my life. From where I am I see no returning, there is no hope for me.
